Cowdray Park

Set amidst spectacular rolling downland, the award-winning Cowdray Park Golf Club is considered to be one of the most beautiful courses in Southern England and offers a true test of golf, with 18 holes on a par 70 course measuring 6,212 yards.

The Cowdray Estate can offer Clay Pigeon Shooting for groups and corporate events as well as fly fishing on the River Rother at Cowdray Park. which is stocked annually, there is a healthy population of wild brown trout.

In 2010 we aquired Chiddingfold Golf Club, a picturesque Surrey course located approximately 20 minutes away from Cowdray.
